I would have named the book Against the Odds rather than all odds but it is a story in which there are obstacles that are overcome. I don't know if Chuck had a ghost writer but the book sounds like him. Since I have delayed writing this review, the details have faded but it is not a great book nor is it riveting.

Against All Odds was a spectacular story about love, tragedy, loss, hope and the power of healing. It was an emotional ride... I was in tears for a good part of the book, but I love when a book can bring out those types of feelings in me. Even with some of their poor choices, the characters were likable and relatable.
