With the novel "Black Out" Ms Unger has taken the phrase "can't put down " to an entirely new level { in actual fact you have to put it down occasionally just to catch your breath }. Lisa Unger has the unique talent that makes it unable to make direct comparisons with each of her books, which to me is the hallmark of a great writer.

I like Lisa Unger and have read a few of her books - I'm a sucker for psychological thrillers and picked up Black Out because it looked promising. Overall it wasn't bad, though I did not particularly like any of the characters except Ophelia/Annie's dad, and I was not a fan of any of the character names: Ophelia, Gray, Victory, Marlowe, etc.
