Things Grak Hates Ebook Peter

Peter J. Story's Things Grak Hates is both a parable and a satiric cautionary tale about power and authoritarianism. Grak's tale is full of humor, wisdom and, ultimately, tenderness. Story wrote an engaging novel that highlights the perils of falling for the loudest but often times more ill-informed or flat-out ignorant voices in our hyperpolarized current public debate.

Grak, a moody, misunderstood member of a group of egalitarian nomads, suffers from a “severe and unusual hatred of olives.” That, in turn, means he doesn't like Lago, the tribe's cook, who adds the fruit to all the dishes he makes. To get back at Lago, Grak utters a small and seemingly innocent lie.
