Editorial Reviews. 07/27/2020. Haig (How to Stop Time) draws on quantum wave theory in this charming if sometimes laborious account of the many possible lives of a depressed woman.Nora, in her mid-30s and living in the small English town of Bedford, suffers from "situational depression"—though, as she wryly observes, "It's just that I keep on having new... situations."

Near the great elm tree, which is a quarter of a league from the village, I got out of the carriage, and sent it on before, that alone, and on foot, I might enjoy vividly and heartily all the pleasure of my recollections. I stood there under that same elm which was formerly the term and object of my walks.
